

Greetings and Happy Spring!

I hope all of you are able to stay clear of the yellow snow as much as possible these few weeks! This Spring is proving to be a very busy and exciting time for the SBPC with an Artist of the Year Celebration, newly approved membership policy changes, updates and changes to some of the workshops, and a fresh new look with new art and featured artists in Brick City Gallery. So read on and see what is going on!

Let's Get Started .....

YOU ARE INVITED TO WHAT WILL BE A MEMORABLE EVENT AT

B&G Brick City
GALLERY

Join us in celebrating BETH BALE'S accomplishments as an artist and instructor at the Sanford Brush & Palette Club's

2025 Artist Of The Year Celebration!

Special Exhibition May 1 - May 4, 11 AM - 4 PM

Reception May 3, 1-4 PM

Beth will have on display and for sale over 50 pieces of her framed, fabulous watercolor paintings, as well as unframed original paintings and prints. All of you are invited, so save the dates! Please visit our website listed below to read about her accomplishments. For those of you unable to attend her exhibition, Beth will remain the featured artist of the month for the rest of May.

Hosting workshops are a significant part of the SBPC's offerings to its members and the public, both locally and out of the area. Below are upcoming 2025 workshops - seats are still available.
