

Greetings and Happy Spring!

The SBPC celebration of Beth Bales Artist of the Year Award kicked off the month of May with a bang! We had a great turnout of both non-members and members. For those of you who attended the reception, thank you!

We have two new workshops to offer you this month, so please check them out below!

Hosting workshops are a significant part of the SBPC's offerings to its members and the public, both locally and out of the area. Below are upcoming 2025 workshops - seats are still available.
